

DELEGATES SELECTED

To Attend the Minneapolis Convention.

A RINGING PLATFORM ADOPTED

It indorses the Administration, Commends Blaine, and Declares for Protection.

STOCKTON, May 3.—So bitter and prolonged was the contest tonight over the introduction of Niles' resolution prohibiting federal officers from being members of the state central committee that nominations for delegates-at-large were lost sight of.

During the interval between afternoon and evening sessions DeYoung's men were hard at work, and rumors abounding to the effect that they were about to secure the election of DeYoung.

Felton has dropped out of the contest, and DeYoung's opponent is General W. H. L. Barnes.

The San Diego delegation is said to have gone over to DeYoung, as have San Bernardino, Fresno, Santa Barbara, Ventura and half of San Jose.

If this rumor is correct DeYoung's chances are greatly improved and it looks like a winning fight for him.

There will probably be no contest over the other delegates-at-large—Eaton, Spence and Kilduff.

Tonight a couple of district conventions were held.

The first district elected E. V. Spencer of Lassen and D. E. Cole of Sierra district delegates, and S. Matthews and J. T. Matlock alternates.

The second district elected J. F. Kilduff of Grass Valley and A. J. Rhoades of Sacramento delegates, and C. O. Voorhies and J. N. Spence alternates.

After the convention adjourned to-night the committee on platform was in session until after 12 o'clock, and at that time a platform had not been agreed upon by the committee.

Called to order, precisely at 2 o'clock Irwin C. Stump, chairman of the state central committee, called the convention to order. He said:

"You are to be congratulated on the large attendance at this convention and the enthusiasm displayed. They augur well for the success of the Republican party. They are evidence that the present policy of the party meets with your approval. The business of this convention should be so conducted that in the fall campaign its principles may be sustained. I congratulate you that we enter a campaign with no apology for our conduct of public affairs."

"It remains for us to do our duty fearlessly. To place principle above selfish interests. The next business in order will be the nomination of a temporary chairman."

NEW SELECTED. J. H. Neff of Placer was placed in nomination for temporary chairman.

J. H. Murphy of Los Angeles seconded the nomination. Murphy stated that the people of northern California were in favor of reviving the mining industry, and in addition to furnishing fruit and raisins, California should furnish gold to the world.

De Golyer of Alameda also seconded Neff's nomination.

Monck of San Francisco stated that San Francisco was best and equal in favor of the nomination of J. W. Rea of San Jose, and then rose and moved that Neff be nominated by acclamation.

This was done with a yell, and Neff was declared elected temporary chairman.

Rea of San Jose and Meyer of San Francisco conducted Neff to the chair.

THE SPEECHES. Neff on taking the chair said: "It is no honor to be called on to preside over a body of representative Republicans. I shall endeavor to preside impartially and for the good of the Republican party. The gentlemen whom you select to go to Minneapolis should represent the party, and whether James G. Blaine or McKinley be nominated we are prepared to elect them. I believe California will roll up a magnificent record before us."

Frank Ryan of Sacramento was placed in nomination for secretary by Colonel Eugene Lebo of Stockton.

Hamilton of San Francisco placed R. L. Thomas of San Francisco in nomination for secretary.

It was moved that both act as temporary secretaries. Carried.

After several motions were made the convention took a recess of half an hour to enable the chairman to appoint the committee.

A motion was carried that the convention adjourn to be till 7:30 this evening.

Senator Mahony offered a resolution to refer all resolutions to the committee on platform without reading. The resolution was tabled.

The convention then adjourned till evening.

manent organization and order of business was read as follows:

First, That the temporary chairman, J. H. Neff, be permanent chairman of the convention.

Second, That the temporary secretaries, R. L. Thomas and Eugene Lebo, act as permanent secretaries of the convention.

Third, That W. H. Hanton, H. W. Bachelder, H. A. Weaver and F. C. Denio act as assistant secretaries.

Fourth, That O. R. Johnson be chief, and his assistants, John Harrison, J. J. Maloney and Thomas Wren, act as sergeant-at-arms.

ORDER OF BUSINESS. The committee further reports that the order of business be as follows:

First, Report of the committee on platform and resolutions.

Second, Election by the convention four delegates and four alternates for the state at large to the Republican national convention, such election to be upon roll-call by counties, provided that from the city and county of San Francisco the roll-call shall be by assembly districts.

Third—Report from each congressional district of two delegates and two alternates to the Republican national convention.

Fourth—Selection of a state central committee, to be composed of one member from each assembly district, and where two or more counties form an assembly district there shall be one from each county composing such district.

Fifth—Report from each assembly district and each county shall select and report to the convention the names selected before final adjournment.

Sixth—That the executive committee of the state central committee consist of twenty-one members, shall be appointed by the chairman of the convention, and he shall report the names selected by within two weeks after the adjournment of the convention to the chairman of the present state central committee.

H. A. POWELL, Chairman.

A SMALL BOULDER. E. J. Niles offered a resolution to prohibit office holders from being members of the state committee.

The resolution aroused a storm of debate. After a debate, lasting for over an hour, McCrany of San Diego moved to strike out of the report of the committee on order of business all reference to the state central committee, thus throwing the election of the committee out of this convention.

The vote was 30 yeas and a roll call was demanded, which resulted in a vote of 324 to 175.

The amendment offered by Niles was then put to a vote and resulted in the amendment being lost. A roll call was demanded which resulted—yeas 293, nays 430.

The question was then on the adoption of the committee's report, and the motion was carried.

The chairman announced that the committee on platform was not ready to report.

The convention then adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

IN THE SIXTH DISTRICT the delegation will vote solidly for Spence for delegate-at-large, but on the district delegate question there is trouble. There are four candidates for the two positions—Ollis and Johnson of Los Angeles, Jack of San Luis Obispo and Porter of Monterey.

The delegation held two meetings this afternoon, but did not accomplish anything, and finally adjourned until 9 in the morning.

There is a well defined scheme on foot among the Los Angeles delegation to ignore the northern part of the district and elect two delegates from Los Angeles.

With the exception of the Third district other districts have decided not to elect delegates until after the report of the committee on credentials be presented tomorrow.

DIVIDED THE DELEGATES. There was a hot fight in the committee on credentials this afternoon over the contested seats of the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth San Francisco districts.

The committee was in session from 3 until after 6, and finally the country was got tired of the wrangling and the San Francisco contingent and divided up the delegates between the two sides. Kelly and Crimmins were allowed to keep their eight delegates from the thirty-fourth district, and Kelly and Wilson received the five delegates from the thirty-fifth. This leaves San Francisco fifty-seven for Barnes and Wilson and fifty-three for Kelly and Crimmins.

STOCKTON, May 4.—The Republican state convention met this morning as per adjournment last night.

It was evident from the first that differences had been about settled during the night and early forenoon, which meant that when the convention had adopted the platform the selection of delegates would proceed rapidly.

THE PLATFORM. Chairman Neff opened the convention at 11 o'clock this morning by stating that he hoped the convention would not waste time in disposing of the business.

Chairman Johnson of the platform committee then read the platform.

The Republican party of the state of California in convention assembled at Stockton on May 3, 1892, does hereby adopt the following resolutions of its views on the issues of the day:

The administration of the national affairs by the Republican party has been such that it is not possible to make an indictment of the administration without indicting the master hand so long and lovingly known by our party; we recognize again and again the man who stands in the very foremost rank of living statesmen whose name we hold in reverence and whose name we hold in every American home, and who is the favorite son of every Republican in every state of the American Union—

JAMES G. BLAINE.

1892 than the man who led us to victory in 1888.

We indorse the administration of Governor Markham as wise and efficient and most heartily commend the care with which he is endeavoring to economize and improve the management of our state institutions.

We reaffirm our belief and adherence to the Republican national platform of 1888. Upon the doctrine there enshrined of a protection of American industries, and of American labor we won the contest, and all subsequent experience has strengthened our confidence in that system of governmental policy of which our party is the exponent, and we confidently ask the close scrutiny of its workings under the present tariff as the strongest argument for its maintenance.

The policy of our government has always been to welcome to our shores the good people from all parts of the world, but we recognize the fact that

OUR HOSTILITY HAS BEEN ABUSED, that thousands of undesirable immigrants have been imposed upon us, and we have voluntarily come to us, and we deem that the time has arrived for a reform in our laws that shall protect the United States from the socialist, the criminal, the pauper, the anarchist and the nihilist, and shall place such a strong guard around the sacred privilege of becoming an American citizen that no man shall be great that justifies himself unless he is unimpeachably entitled thereto.

We hail with glad hearts the cessation of legal warfare between the miners and agriculturists of California, and the blending together of the great interests of our commonwealth in one harmonious effort to advance the common good, without injury to either. We indorse the efforts that have been made to bring the farmer and miner into union, and call upon congress to enact immediately a law which shall secure to the miner the right to gain upon the pathway of commerce the millions of treasure from the mines of the Sierra Nevada, without damage to the valleys or the waters of agricultural interest of the state.

THE SACRAMENTS and the San Joaquin rivers and their tributaries are natural highways of commerce within the state, and we are in favor of improving their channels and constructing navigable canals through the valleys of said rivers, connecting them with the great Pacific to secure forever to the people of the state for the products of our soil and our factories. The Nicaragua canal, by means of which the distance between the Atlantic and Pacific seas ports of our country will be shortened by 10,000 miles, thus affording a highway for quick and cheap transportation, is without limit, and is an enterprise which, if properly guarded, can never be monopolized by any private interest, and in the belief of the vast importance to the commerce of the world and especially to the states and territories contiguous to our sea coast.

We urge upon congress to take such action as will insure an early completion of said canal and at the same time secure the control of the canal to the government of the United States, and we heartily indorse the voice of President Harrison in his message to congress wherein he believes that the canal and the commerce of the country are entitled and should receive the full and adequate protection under the tariff laws as that granted any other industry. We believe that silver is equally with gold to be the basis of the monetary system of the nation, for whom the Republican party has always labored, we demand the passage of such laws as will provide for the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and the mining of the United States as soon as the same can be done without injury to the business interests of the nation.

THE REPUBLICAN party has been the friend and protector of the laborer of the country, and in this line with the legislation which our party has given them, we favor the passage of such laws by congress as will PROTECT AMERICAN LABOR against the importation of the products of the pauper labor, as well as against the importation of contract or pauper laborers, believing that by so doing only can we adequately secure to American labor the full reward of his exertions, and we demand a rigid enforcement of the law limiting the hours of labor on public works, and at the same time we also demand such legislation as shall effectively prohibit all Chinese coming into the United States. We favor the amendment of the constitution of the United States, providing for the election of United States senators by a direct vote of the people.

While we state nothing of our words of praise regarding the chief magistrate of the nation, we must express our profound convictions that in the whole history of the world no man has ever so lovingly known by our party; we recognize again and again the man who stands in the very foremost rank of living statesmen whose name we hold in reverence and whose name we hold in every American home, and who is the favorite son of every Republican in every state of the American Union—

JAMES G. BLAINE.

As the reading of the platform progressed the reader was interrupted by wild cheers. The section demanding more stringent naturalization and immigration laws called forth the wildest enthusiasm, lasting several minutes. The hydraulic mining section also seemed to meet with great favor. The Chinese question and the popular election of judges were also very pleasing to the delegates.

The closing words of the platform about Blaine aroused the greatest enthusiasm yet shown in the convention.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM. D. S. Dora moved to amend the platform by adding a resolution indorsing civil service reform, but the motion was lost. The report was then unanimously adopted.

Dora of San Francisco then moved that the civil service reform resolution be adopted by the convention.

Johnson of Sacramento moved to strike out the section referring to offensive pauperism.

Dora objected, but the convention struck out the section and adopted the resolution.

The resolution reads as follows: Resolved, That the principles of civil service reform inaugurated by the late lamented Hon. James A. Garfield, should be carried out in its strictest and truest sense, and to the credit of the administration of the President Harrison.

The resolution was then carried to the rank and file of the Republican party; therefore, he is further

Resolved, That this convention indorse and recommend the carrying out in its fullest extent the principles of civil service reform.
